FOREWORD

This Sabha first of all humbly bow to the memory of the late Jagat Guru Shri Chandra Dev, a protagonist of the Udasin Sampraday, through whose grace the propaganda work and the Reading Room came to a successful termination. His followers are not found only in India, but monasteries set up by him still exist even beyond her limits just as in Kabul, Kandhar etc. The monks and mendicants attached to these monasteries are even today sincerely prepared to make sacrifices in the cause of the Sanatan Dharm and Indian culture. It was after the name of this Super-human soul that this Sabha (association) was given birth to in 1921 at the holy Tirth of Sadhubela Sukkar, Sind with its cardinal aim of all sided human service. It has since been serving the public with such reading rooms as the one under review at all events of Hardwar and Prayag Kumbhs and Ardh Kumbhs.

The President of the Sabha is His Holiness Shri Mahant Swami Harnam Das ji of Sadhv-bela Sukkar Sindh. His Services are well known to the whole of India. To say any thing more in his introduction here is as futile as to point out the sun with a torch.

Its Vice-President is His Holiness Shri Mahant Lakshman Das ji Sajjade Nashin of Dehra Dun, who is renowned far and wide for his munificence, religious sentimentality and humanitarian services. We pray to Almighty for his happy long life, so that he might be able to serve the Sadhus and the rest of mankind for ages to come. The Sanatan Dharm Updeshahak, Shri Suteekshan Muni ji is the Secretary of the Sabha. It is too inadequate to whatever extent he may be praised for his spirit of love and service.

The Sabha offers its best thanks to the following Saints and wish them a bright career of national service.

1. Shri 108 Mahant Jamnna Das ji Shree Panch of the Panch Parmeshwar Udasin Bara Akhara, who so kindly helped the Reading Room with his good counsels and also supplied ration for its office bearers.
2. Shri Mahant Adram ji, Mahant Prem Das ji and Mahant Hardeva Nand ji, for their occasional inspections of the institution.
3. Shri Baba Dharmdas ji, who remained personally interested throughout in the affairs of the work.
4. Shri Mahant Shyam Das ji Panch-Parmeshwar Naya Akhara for his good wishes.

6. Shri Mahant Bachan Dasji Chaubacha Sahba, Lahore.

8. Swami Santosha Nand ji who helped in the erection of the Pandal and arranged for preachings and lectures.
9. Shri Swami Chaitanya Dev ji Bhimgoda who heartly cooperated with the workers of the Sabha.
10. Shri Master Keshava Chandra ji, Secretary of the Durbar Guru Ram Rai Saheb, who so kindly fulfilled the wants of the Reading Room and helped in the decoration of the Pandal.

The Sabha further extends its thanks to the under named Pandits, who so kindly served the audience of the Pandal with their sermons and lectures from time to time.

In-charge Kumbh Mela Reading Room,

MY TWO WORDS.

I had had the pleasure of visiting the Shri Chandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha Reading Room and of reading news paper comments and visitor's remarks about it. I have a great regard for the Udasin achievements.

Apart from spiritual and scientific wonders worked individually, the collective activities of our Sadhus have heretofore remained more or less confined to the making of Dharmshalas and temples, starting of Sadavarts and Pyaos and giving of Bhandaras (sumptuous feasts) etc. But now the installation of libraries, reading rooms and Pandals by our Udasin Sadhu Samaj on occasions like Kumbh is a novelty, which takes the Sadhus a step beyond their primitive orbit, and which brings high honour not only to the Udasins but to all the Sadhus in the hearts of those who make no distinction among them.

दरवार श्री गुरु रामराय साहिब देहरादून ।

Amidst so many charities, where Sadhus and almsmen were being fed so lavishly how pleasant it was to see our intelligentsia entertained with intellectual dishes by our Udasin Sadhus. It was of course an unique gift acceptable to all rich and poor alike irrespective of their religious scruples.

In this connection it would not perhaps be out of place to say that my individual impression based on an eye witnessed story of an Udasin Sadhu, Ramdas ji is that the Udasins are most selflessly serviceable characters sincerely devoted to the teachings of their Great Guru Shrichandra Dev. Touched by the sight of a few cattle and a man getting drowned in the Ganges while fording it at Nagun on the way to Gangotri, this Sadhu Ramdas ji at the age of 90 quite destitute and helpless as he was eventually succeeded in getting a Pakka suspension bridge constructed over there by virtue of his long persistent Hercules' choice. He died soon after the bridge was declared open;

but the bridge is there to ever commemorate the glory of our Sadhus

Inculcating the spirit of charity and social service and imparting the knowledge of world affairs by means of a stock of good books, numerous periodicals and preachings; and above all providing shelter to the fatigued pilgrims under the thatched pavilion, the Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha Free Reading Room with its Pandal at Hardwar on this holy occasion of the Kumbh of 1938 has won for its founders universal affection. worth emulating.

I was delighted all the more when I learnt that the chief spirits at the bottom of all this were their world renowned Holinenes Shri Swami Harnamdas ji Maharaj of Sadhbela Sukkar(Sind)and Shri Mahant Lakshmandasji Maharaj Sajjade Nashin of Dehra Dun; and distinguished among the apostles of the cause was Baba Purandas ji Udasin of Hyderabad (Deccan).

May the Lord give our Udasin Mahatmas strength and wisdom to play the role of our ancient Rishis for the all sided uplift of our mother land-India.

With respectful Pranams to all Saints.

Unity in Sadhu Samaj.

By the grace of God, learned Mahants, Sants and others of all classes of Sadhu Samajs have assembled on this auspicious occasion of Kumbh at this holy place of Hardwar. We wish that taking full advantage of this opportunity the Sadhu Samaj should have been well organised and misunderstandings that crept in should go away for ever. By starting libraries and Reading Rooms at holy places on occasions of public gatherings the Shri Guru Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak

Sabha has furnished the general public with the sources of religious and cultural knowledge. Numerous news papers are provided for the use of the people, and nothing is accepted in aid of this charitable work from other than Udasin Sadhus. It was generally presumed that the Udasin Akharas pertains simply to devotional works, but from their maintaining such libraries which contain thousands of news papers dailies, weeklies in English, Hindi Urdu, Gujarati, Bengali etc., languages, It is evident that the Udasins worked a lot in the past for the cause of Sanatan Dharm and the Udasin Sabha is now running a free Reading Room and library in a grand scale for the occasion of Hardwar Kumbh. Mahant Purandas ji Udasin is being highly applauded from all sides for his excellent management.

A very big library has been established on behalf of the Udasins at Bhimgoda. It has news papers in every language. Even London papers can be had here for Reading. Baba Purandas ji is in charge of this office. He is very particular about the comforts of the readers. The hall has more than 500 chairs to sit on. A separate Reading Room is made for ladies. Previous days papers are put in file every morning and they are replaced by new ones, so that no body could complain.

On the 25th February last when declaring the Shri Guru Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha Free Reading Room open, His Holiness Mahant Lakshmandas ji Maharaj spoke as follows :—

Ever since the creation of this world knowledge has been the only source of the evolution of human civilization. Like the ancient Rishis, Sadhus of modern India have it their sacred duty to propagate knowledge (Gyan) for the benefit of all living beings.

It is simply to respond the call of duty in accordance with on traditions and doctrins of Shri Guru Shrichandra, the founder of the Udasin Sampraday that the project of building up this grand free Reading Room was contemplated for the cause of enlightenment. When I think of the out-come of this colossal enterprise, my heart is of course filled with excessive joy. Considering the prospects of this I can confidently say that the Udasin Sadhus have laid this as a foundation stone for the evolution of human civilization.

Gentlemen ! at this unprecedented event my appreciation and thanks are due to him together with his assistants—I mean that Baba Purandas ji of brilliant personality wrapped in black Kambal—who got this magestic mandap erected by his untiring energies surmounting all the difficulties and handicaps that lay in his path. Further in behalf of the Udasin Sabha and myself I thank you all the gentlemen, who graced

The Hardwar Kumbh Mela appears growing up in lusture day by day. Here and there are the encampments of the Sadhus.

Most of them seem to belong to the Udasi Sadhus. Of all the camps, management of that of the Sadhubela (Sukkar, Sind) is the best. This camp is in front of the hermit of Swami Kamaldas. Sadhus and saints are being feasted almost every day at the camps of Sadhubela and Swami Kamaldas ji. The other day there was a Bhandara or grand feast at the hermit of Swami Kamaldas ji, when thousands of Sadhus were served with Laddu, Halwa, Puris and Kachauris. Yesterday, Sadhbela camp had a still greater Bhandara.

On the open field in front of the camp thousands of Sadhus were served with food many a time and afterwards the poor were fed. On enquiry it was learnt that about 10 thousand Pattals [plates of leaves] were used up; and this excludes the number of those poor men who took food in their palm. From these Bhandaras it is concluded that Udasi Sadhus are really very liberal in feeding others.

A very big and magnificent Reading

Room is being run at Bhimgoda at the expenses and management of the Udasin Updeshak Sabha.

This is an attractive scene amidst all the things of the Kumbh, where newspaper dailies, weeklies from different parts and of different languages come in, and daily seven thousand readers are benifited. Truly speaking this is a suitable place for mutual gathering, where one can know daily all about the world and see one's friends and acquaintances in time. 300 papers come hereinto. Besides this, kathas is recited here daily and lectures delivered. It is well equipped with telephone, loud speakers and electric light. Reading Room in Hardwar
To the Editor National Call.

Sir,

Different eyes will see different things at Hardwar these days. Many Sabhas and Societies have tried to serve the Kumbh pilgrim in their noble way, but one thing which is a source of attraction to every keen observer is a telephone fitted Reading Room near Bhimgoda. The Reading Room is situated in a specially decorated Pandal with seating arrangement for 105 gentlemen and ladies [for ladies special arrangement has been made in a side Pandal]. News papers. Dailies, weeklies from all parts of India & 13 papers from abroad the sea are every morning found on the tables.

One speciality of all this is that the whole expenses are incurred by the Udasin Sadhus, who do not accept even a thousand from any other donor. In this age Sadhus helping and serving the public is a unique thing and through your columns with your permission. I thank H. H. Mahant Poorandas [Hyderabad Deccan] the Secretary and Organisor of this Sabha.

Of the thousands of things worth seeing on the occasion of the Kumbh at Hardwar the Free Reading Room established by the ShrichandraUdasin Updeshak Sabha is a speciality. Therein, besides telephone connection, arrangements for the seating of 1000 persons have been made and special arrangement is there for ladies. In addition to all the Indian news papers, the papers from the countries abroad adds to the grandeur of the Reading Room. At night the Pandal got profusely illumined by electric light like "Diwali". For all this the credit goes to Shri Mahant Purandas ji, who is always devoted to public service.

Most beautiful and attractive was the Shri Gurm Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha Reading Room of Shri Mahant Poorandas ji of Eyderabad [Deccan], which contained news papers not only in all languages of India, but also foreign papers in different foreign languages. It had a collection of 300 news papers. Two to three hundred men could sit and read papers at a time. About a dozen copies of each of the Hindustan, Vir arjun, Hindi Milap, and others which were more popular could be available. Reports and rules of distant institutions were also in store. The entire project was marvelous. No reading room like this is to be found even in big cities. There was an uptodate arrangement for telephones, Loudspeakers, Radio, electricity etc. Attached to it was a spacious Pandal where, besides Katha and Updesh, other Societies and Sabhas could hold their meetings. Remark books were kept here and there in which readers could put down their opinions and express their difficulties. Mahant Purandas ji personally looked after every affair. In Prayag too he had arranged for a similar Reading Room at the time of Kumbh. This nice example of growing wakefulness, revolution and change among Sadhus will long hover before our eyes. Everywhere in the Mela this Reading Room was talked about and praised. Whosoever happened to see it was overpowered by its charm.

But I was surprised at seeing the management of the Sadhus of Udasin Mandal. In the garden of Muzaffarnagarwalas in front of Bhimgoda is a very large Pandal; where Kathas are recited; and Vaid conference was held. I was made President of the 7th April meeting. It therefore necessitated my going there. Adjoined to it is a very big thatched hall, where daily dozens of Hindi, English and Urdu papers are sent for and hundreds of people read them comfortably. There is a separate arrangement for women. Telephone is also fitted. Not a single pie is begged from any body; rather certain generous people offered heavy sums, which were refused. Udasin have a big Akhara. Sadhubela Sukkar and His Holiness Mahant, Lakshmandas Sahib of Dehra Dun contributed to this work. Swami Purandas ji is working this with full enthusiasm.

I visited the Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha Free Reading Room and was much delighted to find the managements excellent under Baba Purandasji Maharaja. All this was worthy of the name of the Udasin Sampraday. Among so many papers of different parts I was amazed to find news papers of the Southern India too. It contained sufficient matter for the urdu reading public also.

Shrichandra Udasin Updeshak Sabha,
Free Reading Room.

On the Bhimgoda, one witnesses the beautiful Library, with a Free Reading Room on a large scale. Near this Reading Room, a huge Pandal has been put for lectures by learned sanskrit scholars as well as spiritual monks. The whole expenditure is being met with by the Sadhus and Mahants. Under the same management three free dispensaries are also being maintained. The President of the Free Reading Room Swami Harnamdas Maharaj of Sadhu Bela Tirth, and the Vice-President is His Holiness Mahant Lakshmandas Shajjade Nashin of Dehra Dun. Baba Purandas ji of Hyderabad is camp in charge.

Namaskar,

Oh long haired, black clothed Baba ! you have certainly realised the mysterious way of reaching God. On this occasion when at Hardwar it is very hard for a pilgrim to have a little space to stand on even for a minute, and when accommodation is so scarce and dear, you have, having spent so much money for the service of mankind, provided for a Free Reading Room with Library, at the sight of which one gets thunderstruck. Any one can thoroughly imagine the sense of gratitude of all those who for hours comfortably take shelter at midday under this grand pavilion. With this and this disinterested service alone one can realise his Heavenly father. It seems you have full faith in and acted up to this teaching of Gita. I would congratulate you for all this achievement and being a Nirmala cannot but offer you my affectionate Namaskar.

Ladies have separate block to sit and read in. Matchless is a Pandal attached to it fitted with telephone. There are also 5 dispensaries to distribute medicines free. This Sabha never accepts any donation from any body. All this is run solely at the expense of the Udasin Sampradaya. "It is a happy news that with the new enlightenment, the education among the sadhus is also being progressed and Shriman Baba Purandas ji Maharaj is the chief person to take a keen interest in it. I had a chance to visit his Reading Room but I was so much enchanted with the management, that I wanted to spend my most precious time in his Free Reading Room. Seeing the proper management of the Reading Room it could be concluded that there are also gems among the Sadhus. I asked for the list of Free Reading Room. Swami ji gladly handed over the list of the news papers etc to me. I give any cordial thanks to Swami ji and the managers. In this way I concluded that all Udasin Mahants helped it with money. I can potently say that it is very difficult to find a peer of Swam Purandas ji who is a pious and holy man."

I visited the well known writers of the world the Kumbhas and witnessed many big fairs but the deeds that were rendered by Shrichandra Free Reading Room to the public at the occasion of the Kumbh were never heard of or seen. It is an unique Reading Room in which thousands of tired and weary persons of the Kumbh take rest and hundreds of people go through papers and enjoy them. It is beyond my power to thank Baba Purandas ji. He is a pious and a real server or martyr of the country and the community.

One day being perplexed by the heat of of the sun I was passing through Bhimgoda where there was not even a single spot unoccupied where I could rest for a while. In the meantime I happened to cast my eyes to a big gate on which it was written in block letters Shrichandra Free Reading Room I, atonce, entered the Reading Room and found the management better than that of the Kumbha at Hardwar and quenched the thirst of my eyes by seeing Swami Purandas ji. His men are also specially praiseworthy. They rendered their services very nicely by providing cold water and comfort to the tired and weary people. I give my hearty thanks to Baba Purandas ji for his management and pray to God for the birth of such minded people. If such people were borne there would not be any want of service for the country and the community.

Heart leaps up when we see this Reading Room. Not only the Indians take advantage of it but also the foreigners. There are tables arranged and 500 chairs arranged for the people to sit on. During the night there are more than 500 electric lamps, the light of which brightens the whole 'Pandal'. The Reading Room is kept open throughout the day and night. There are attendants to attend the people. These are all outer views of the Reading Room. If you look at the news papers you will not only find the Indian news papers but also the papers of the different countries as America, Europe, Japan and so on. For these papers special arrangement of the air mail is made. It is impossible to enumerate all the papers here. So we can enumerate a few as monthly magazines, weekly and daily news papers. In this way the number of the papers is about 350 and foreign news papers is about 50. Now you can imagine how many people are benefited by this Reading Room. One can easily see the news of ones country or province. There is not only the Reading Room for men but also for women and there is the accomodation for at least 50 ladies to sit in. In this way there is equally good arrangement for ladies. On the other side of the Reading Room that has been started since 1st February 1938, a very big 'Pandal' has been constructed that surpasses all 'Pandals' at Hardwar on beauty and accomodation. In the pandal Pt. Gauri Shankar ji Amritsari has been daily performing the Katha after the midday since 4th March 1938. Every Sanatan Dharmi association can get it for its use and take advantage of it. Side by side of the mental nurishment of the people there are three charitable dispensaries for maintaining the health of the people. This is not only sufficient, for the convenience of the people, there are telephone connections from where every body can telephone without any payment or charge. After knowing it you will naturally be anxious to know on whose behalf all this has been done. You will be surprised to know that the Sadhus for whose uplift people crying loudly, it all has been done on their behalf by Shrichandra Udasin Preaching Association. For this only the assistance of the Udasin Sadhus is sought and of no other body else. It is true that this Udasinsect has locked the mouth of the dispisers of Sadhus by doing this probono public deeds. But the credit of this work which is being done so, admirably and successfully goes to Mahatma Purandas ji who is the incharge of this camp. He is very meek humble and benevolent and moreover he is very charming and fascinating in his conversations. He receives every passerby very cordially and gladly. It can be known only by those who had a chance to see him. He has an earnest desire to serve the country and religion and that is why he has been made incharge of the Reading Room on the occasion, of Ardh Kumbh at Prayag and on the occasion of Kumbh at Hardwar, He is an ideal Mahatma. He was born in a high brahmin family. From his infancy he was inclined towards disinterestedness. In his childhood he took 'Mantra' from a Udasin Mahatma and since then he has been giving the religion. He has visited all the Indian tirths several times. Now a days he is a Mahant in Hyderabad (Deccan) of a Udasin Ashram. His Highness Maharaja Sir Krishna Prasad ji is one of his favourite devotees. His parents and sect are to be blessed who have given birth to such a Mahatma and the country is also to be blessed where such a saint lives. It is undisputable to say that India can progress a lot if all the Mahatmas properly discharge their duties.
